

PROFILE

My career as a web developer started in 2011. My speciality is in .Net ASP.Net, C#, PHP, especially Laravel. I've built several product for my former company using those framework, so I know the in and out of those framework from experience.

To say, by learning and doing project I know a thing or two about developing web apps using .Net & Laravel. And, I am ready to learn new ones and expand my current knowledge of the fore mentioned as needed to the point where it makes me do my job faster, better and more efficiently.
